

Contemporary Issues in Energy and Environmental Policy

Colloquium Series – Spring 2009

Date	Title/Speaker/Location
March 5, 2009	“City of Philadelphia Sustainability PHLan” Dr. Mark Alan Hughes Director of the Mayor’s Office of Sustainability and Senior Advisor to Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter 12-1:30 p.m., Ewing Room, Perkins Student Center
March 19, 2009	“Energy, Habitat & the Nature Conservancy’s Energy Platform” Jimmie Powell Energy Team Leader, The Nature Conservancy 12-1:30 p.m., Ewing Room, Perkins Student Center
April 16, 2009	“Tropical Trees: Reducing Carbon Emissions and Poverty with Measurements and Markets” Dr. D. James Baker Director, Global Carbon Measurement Program The William J. Clinton Foundation 12-1:30 p.m., Gallery, Perkins Student Center
May 14, 2009	CEEP Distinguished Alumnus Colloquium “Sustainable Development and the Development of Sustainability” Dr. Cesar Cuello Professor, Instituto Tecnologico de Santo Domingo and Professor, Universidad Autonoma de Santo Domingo 12-1:30 p.m., Ewing Room, Perkins Student Center
May 20, 2009	“Fueling the Flames: The Politics of Oil” Jon B. Alterman Director, Center for Strategic & International Studies 7:30 pm – Mitchell Hall This talk is part of the University’s Global Agenda speaker series and is being co-sponsored by CEEP

Sponsored by the Center for Energy and Environmental Policy the Graduate Program in Energy and Environmental Policy and the College of Human Services , Education and Public Policy
University of Delaware